

Freebies From Your Trips

Tech-G@L

By Beth A. Martin

March 30, 2010

Whoever said nothing in life was free? Here are some things that we found that are free or cost minimal money. Most of all, they will remind you of where you went and what you did on your fabulously fun trip.

Collect and save unused napkins, matchbooks, ticket stubs, receipts, etc.

We visited the Arch in St. Louis and took a cruise on the Mississippi River. We saved the stubs and placed them inside the frame off to the side of the picture and on the mat. It looked awesome.

These are also great for your scrapbook, where you may put the pictures that you took. We visited a lighthouse in Virginia Beach but they did not give tickets, so we bought a postcard and sticker. We did almost the same thing with these items and they worked just as well. These souvenirs are free or cost minimal money.

This is the intellectual and written property of Beth A. Martin.

Before you use ANY of it, be sure to contact me. Thanks. TechG@L