

Packing Small but Going Big on Your Next Trip

Tech-G@L

By Beth A. Martin

March 29, 2010

Pack a shirt that can double as a sweater or jacket. Mix and match what you pack. Pair the colorful tops with multiple plain bottoms. Have 1 nice wrinkle-free outfit and if you can squeeze in a swimsuit, do so.

Use travel sized containers for your shampoo, gel, lotions, toothpaste and fragrances, etc.

Buy the travel sizes or make your own to save money. Use zip-lock bags for cotton swabs, vitamins, jewelry, other small items.

Take less pants, shorts and skirts and more tops (colorful). Have a shirt that can button-down to double as a jacket and go with both shorts and a skirt. Pack one nice shirt or wrinkle-free outfit for a restaurant.

Take less sleepwear, it can be worn for a few nights. Pack one pair each of dressy and casual shoes. This way you are ready to get up and go wherever and look great!

This is the intellectual and written property of Beth A. Martin.

Before you use ANY of it, be sure to contact me. Thanks. TechG@L